

Additional Course Costs

BA (Hons) Illustration (3 & 4 year) Farnham
Equipment/materials needed	Students will incur some additional costs during the course. The course will pay for materials used during inductions, specifically during printmaking inductions. Some materials, such as basic paper, charcoal and ink will be provided free of charge. Once printmaking inductions are over you will have to pay for printmaking materials such as screens, plates, paper, etc. Any specialist materials which you might require, for example, inks, liquid watercolours and fine art inkjet paper, you will have to pay for yourself. As an illustration student you will begin to build up a variety of materials which you like to work with, as the course progresses. The basic materials list we have given you is a starting point from which to build your own specialist materials/tool kit. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - A1 portfolio – essential for handing work in for assessment - Pair of compasses - Steel ruler – at least 50cm long - Metal set square - Dip pen and range of drawing nibs - Range of pencils – please no 'H' ! - Graphite sticks - Old toothbrush - Putty / kneadable Rubber - Glue – BOTH Pritt type stick and PVA - Gouache paints – quality rather than quantity - Watercolour paints – quality rather than quantity - Inks – quality rather than quantity - Scissors - Scalpel and blades – Swann Morton handle / 10A blades (with a cork to store safely) - Stanley Knife

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Cutting matt – At least A3 size, ideally larger- Chalk/pastel fixative- Chalk pastels- Coloured pencils- Masking tape- Roll of lining paper – try B&Q / Wilkinsons- Brushes – a wide range, to include watercolour sizes 3,6,12, decorator’s brushes- Sketchbooks- preferably hardback not spiral bound, in a range of sizes, A3 and A5 are good- ‘Intuos Pen & Touch’ graphics tablet (these are compatible with the drivers installed on campus)- USB storage pen
Visits	In the past, the course has made overseas trips to Paris and Barcelona. Overseas trips are not mandatory but students are expected to pay the costs of joining such a trip. To give you an idea of what you should budget for the most recent Paris trip cost approx. £270 for travel and hotel, and the Barcelona trip approx. £315 for travel and hotel. Usually each student year cohort will have at least one UK trip per year, which might involve travelling up to London for an exhibition or going on location drawing. UK field trips are sometimes free, but you are likely to be expected to pay the cost of travel.